"By utilizing the outstanding leadership promotional evaluation through the OFCA, we can be confident that the right candidate is selected."

-Chief Patrick Connor, Plain Township F.D.

ABOUT US

At OFCA, we recognize the importance of selecting and advancing the best candidates into leadership positions. We understand that each department faces its own unique set of challenges and operates within its own culture. OFCA's Written Professional Testing Division is a recognized leader in assisting departments with their promotional needs and securing the best outcomes while being flexible and responsive to your requirements. Our written exams can be used to make promotional decisions or as the first step in narrowing the candidate pool to the top contenders.
